

The BB&T Program Book/Discussion/Event Club

Fall 2013

Please join our discussion/event group on issues in free enterprise, capitalism, and morality.

First Meeting: Thursday, Sept. 5, 5:00-6:30 pm, Mellow Mushroom

Readings and Discussions at other meetings on:

Volunteer student presentations on ideas important to students.

“The Bolshevik Revolution and the Socialist Calculation Debate.”

“Postwar British Socialism and the Fabian Society.”

The Clash of Economics Ideas, selected essays on economics controversies.

The Road to Serfdom (abridged), by Friedrich Hayek.

Health care reform and other current topics such as government debt, free enterprise and the environment, and cronyism.

Special Events

Speaker	Day/Time/Place	Event
Prof. James Otteson , Wake Forest University	Thurs., Sept. 26, 5:00-6:00, Worsham Theatre	“Adam Smith on Judgment, Dignity, and Capitalism.” Plus informal interaction w/ students.
Prof. Gerald Dwyer , Former VP, Atlanta Fed	Thurs., Nov. 14, 5:00 – 6:00, Worsham Theatre	“Inflation.” Plus informal interaction w/ students.

Regular Meetings (Pizza and Soft Drinks Provided!)

Day/Date	Time/Place	Day/Date	Time/Place
Thurs., Sept. 5	5:00-6:30 pm, Mellow Mushroom	Tues., Nov. 12	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324
Tues., Sept. 17	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324	Tues., Nov. 19	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324
Tues., Oct. 1	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324	Tues., Dec. 3	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324
Tues., Oct. 15	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324	Tues., Dec. 10	5:00-6:30 pm, social event
Tues., Oct. 29	5:00-6:30 pm, BE 324

Materials are free and available from Professor John Garen, BE 335AZ, jgaren@uky.edu.

Independent Study Credit: Students may be able to earn one credit of ECO 395 from regular participation and other requirements. Contact Dr. Garen if interested.