

The Gatton College's BB&T Program is please to sponsor:

“Markets and Morality: The Importance and Limitations of Good Intentions and Caring for Others”

Wednesday, March 5, 3:30 – 4:30 pm in the Center Theatre of the UK Student Center

Presented by

Professor Dwight Lee

William J. O’Neil Chair of Global Markets and Freedom
Cox School of Business, Southern Methodist University

Professor Lee received his Ph.D. from the University of California, San Diego and has served on the faculty of University of Georgia, George Mason University, Virginia Tech University, and University of Colorado and was previously executive director of the Center for the Study of Public Choice. He has published widely in numerous fields of economics, including environmental and natural resource economics, the economics of politics, public finance, law and economics, and labor economics. He is past president of the Southern Economic Association and the Association of Private Enterprise Education.

The talk is free and open to the public. Parking is available at the UK parking garage on the corner of Limestone and Euclid.