

JOHN E. SMIGLA

johnsmigla@uky.edu

859-323-9683

EDUCATION: Kent State University and University of Pittsburgh (Katz Graduate School of Business)
Completed doctoral coursework in accounting (1984)

Kent State University, Kent, Ohio
Awarded Master of Science in Accounting (1978)
Overall GPA: 3.72 Major GPA: 3.75

Pennsylvania State University, Capitol Campus, Middletown, PA
Awarded Bachelor of Business Administration (1976)
Graduated with high-distinction
Major: Accounting Overall GPA: 3.75 Major GPA: 4.0

COURSES TAUGHT: Undergraduate Level: Financial, Managerial, Intermediates, Taxes, Advanced Accounting, Special Topics, Finance, and Personal Finance
Graduate Level: Financial, Managerial, Accounting Theory, International Accounting, and Rapid Immersion in Accounting

EXPERIENCE: 2008-present University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky
Position: Director of MSACC Program & Senior Lecturer in Accounting

2005-2008 Myers University, Cleveland, OH
Position: Director of Graduate Studies, Chairperson-Accounting Department & Associate Professor of Accounting

1979-2005 Robert Morris University, Moon Campus and Pittsburgh Center, 6001 University Boulevard, Moon Township, PA
Position: Associate Professor of Accounting

1978-1979 Arthur Young & Company, Pittsburgh Office, 2400 Koppers Building, Pittsburgh, PA
Position: Staff Accountant - auditing staff

1976-1977 Barnes, Sally & Co., CPA's, 1 Atlee Street, Johnstown, PA
Position: Staff Accountant – auditing and tax staff

AWARDS: - 2009 MBA Teacher of the Year
- Received highest merit rating in teaching and service every year at Robert Morris University.

CERTIFICATION: Certified Public Accountant

- PUBLICATIONS: “Why the CPA Dream Fails to Come Through for Many” Smigla, Kentucky Society of CPA’s Newsletter, Fall 2008.
- “A Conceptual Framework for Reconciliation of Net Income to Operating Cash Flow” Wang, Smigla and Raghavan, presented at the American Accounting Association 2007 Annual Meeting in Chicago, August 2007
- “Reconciliation of Net Income to Cash Flow from Operations-A Conceptual Approach” Wang and Smigla, presented at the American Accounting Association Mid-Atlantic Conference, April 22, 2006.
- “A Transaction Analysis Approach to Preparing the Statement of Cash Flows” Smigla and Wang, submitted to Advances in Accounting Education
- Test Bank for “Financial Accounting for Future Business Leaders” by Bain and Smigla, June, 2003, Thomson Publishing.
- "Should The Accounting Profession Take a Step Backward?" Smigla, CPA Journal, December, 2002
- "Emotional Intelligence: Some Have It, Others Can Learn," Smigla and Pastoria, CPA Journal, June, 2000.
- "Are Female Accounting Majors Outperforming Male Accounting Majors?," Smigla and Zimmerman, New Accountant, January, 1999.
- "Accountant-Client Privilege: Real or Imaginary?" Bryan and Smigla, The Free State Accountant Maryland Society of Accountants, April, 1998.
- "The 'User's Approach' in Introductory Accounting -- For Better or Worse," Smigla, The West Virginia CPA Journal, May, 1996.
- "Are Accounting Programs Preparing Their Students Adequately?" Smigla, New Accountant, April, 1996.
- "Changing How We Teach Introductory Accounting," Smigla, Pennsylvania CPA Journal, April, 1995.
- "Integrating Writing and Computing to Learn in Introductory Accounting," Smigla and Bryan, Accounting Instructors Report, Fall, 1994.

SERVICE AND RESPONSIBILITIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY:

- Chair of the MS Policy Committee
- Member of the Gatton Graduate Recruiting Committee
- Member of the Scholarship Committee
- Member of School of Accountancy Undergraduate Committee
- Author of the School of Accountancy Newsletter

CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

- Completed 80 hours of continuing professional education during 2021-2022.
- Member of the KY CPA Educator's Committee
- Active CPA license in Pennsylvania